

In the matter of the Nova Scotia Criminal Code Review Board

And in the matter of the accused, Mohamed Issak

And in the matter of a hearing held pursuant to section 672.81 (2.1) (Restriction of Liberties Hearing)

Disposition Order

Whereas on the 27th day of January 2016, the accused was found not criminally responsible on account of a mental disorder on charges of assault with a weapon, contrary to section 267(a) of the Criminal Code; and breach of probation, contrary to section 733.1(1)(a) of the Criminal Code of Canada;

And whereas the accused is presently detained at the East Coast Forensic Hospital;

And whereas a hearing was held at the East Coast Forensic Hospital by Zoom conference on the 15th day of December, 2020, to make a disposition order pursuant to section 672.54 of the Criminal Code of Canada;

And whereas the East Coast Forensic Hospital is designated for the custody, treatment or assessment of the accused, in respect of whom an assessment order, disposition or placement decision is made.

It is ordered that there be no change to the current disposition of the accused.

The Board finds that the restriction of liberties was justified.

This is therefore to command you, the administrator of the East Coast Forensic Hospital, in her Majesty's name, to execute the terms of this order. The Board delegates to the administrator, pursuant to section 672.56(1), the authority to direct that the restrictions on the liberties of the accused be increased or decreased within the limits set out in this disposition.

Dated at Dartmouth Nova Scotia this 3rd day of March, 2021.

Suzanne Hood, Chairperson

Nova Scotia review Board

To: Mohamed Issak, the accused

And to: Rachel Boehm, Director, Mental Health and Addictions Program, Nova Scotia Health Authority

And to: Richard Hartlen, Public Prosecution Service
