

In the matter of the Nova Scotia Criminal Code Review Board

And in the matter of the accused, Gregory Alfred James Mahar

And in the matter of a hearing held pursuant to section 672.81(2.1) (Restriction of Liberties Hearing)

Disposition Order

Whereas on the 11th day of May, 2018, the accused was found not criminally responsible on account of a mental disorder on charges of uttering threats, contrary to section 264.1(1)(a) of the Criminal Code of Canada;

And whereas the accused is presently detained at the East Coast Forensic Hospital;

And whereas a hearing was held at the East Coast Forensic Hospital by Zoom conference on the 14th day of September, 2020, to make a Disposition Order pursuant to section 672.54 of the Criminal Code of Canada;

And whereas the East Coast Forensic Hospital is designated for the custody, treatment or assessment of the accused, in respect of whom an assessment order, disposition or placement decision is made.

It is ordered that the accused continue to be detained in the East Coast Forensic Hospital with L6 privileges.

The Board finds the Restriction of Liberties was justified.

This is therefore to command you, the administrator of the East Coast Forensic Hospital, in her Majesty's name to execute the terms of this order. The Board delegates to the administrator, pursuant to section 672.56(1), the authority to direct that the restrictions on the liberties of the accused be increased or decreased within the limits set out in this disposition.

Dated this 14th day of April 2021 at Dartmouth. Nova Scotia

Suzanne Hood, Chairperson

Nova Scotia Review Board

To: Gregory Alfred James Mahar, accused

And to: Rachel Boehm, Director, Mental Health and Addictions Program, Nova Scotia Health Authority

And to: Richard Hartlen, Public Prosecution Service
